Tavern Lease for Sale.

THE subscriber being about to remove to the Indian Queen Tavern, in Baltimore, offers for sale, on advantageous terms, the lease of the House he now occupies, having eight years, from the first of December next, to run; which for convenience, it is believed, is excelled by none in the United States, and from the proximity to the seat of government, and the direct communication which will be opened between the city and Alexandria by the bridge across the Potomac and the Turnpike Road, bids fair to become one of the best stands for business in the country, as the distance to the Capitol over the bridge will be only about 7 miles. With the Lease will be sold, if wanted, the whole of the FURNITURE, as it now stands, together with a large stock of WINES & LIQUORS.
There is a vacant Lot on the corner of Cameron and Pitt-streets, adjoining the stables, attached to the House, (which renders it particularly commodious, as by that means the property fronts on three streets) which will be sold in fee simple, or leased for the remainder of the time.

A handsome LOT of GROUND, in the centre of the square between King and Cameron streets, and fronting on Washington and Columbus streets, 107 feet, with a public alley on one side, and an open space that cannot be built on on the other. For a public situation it is unequalled by any property in Alexandria.

ALSO,

A LOT of GROUND, at the west end, about half a mile from town and fronting on the Little River Turnpike Road, 85 feet, running back 250 feet, more or less. There are improvements on the property adjoining it, on each side.

A handsome LOT of GROUND, on the George-Town road, about half a mile from town, in a very beautiful situation, containing two acres.

A handsome SQUARE OF GROUND, on Washington and Columbus streets, within one quarter of a mile of town, well enclosed with a post and rail fence, containing some thing less than two acres.

A half acre LOT on the commons, about the same distance as the last mentioned.

ALSO,

My interest in the lease of a FARM, containing between one and two hundred acres, adjoining the town of Alexandria, in a high state of cultivation, and enclosed with a new post and rail fence, (in one of the enclosures is the Alexandria Jockey Club Race Course) with a large crop of OATS and HAY, which will be sold in the stack or otherwise;— two waggons, four carts, eight ploughs, two double barrows, a large and elegant roller, all of the best construction, six good farm horses and every other article that can be wanted for a well managed farm, together with 12 choice milk COWS, a fine buffalo BULL, forty head of SHEEP, about fifty head of HOGS of the very best breed that could be procured.
Also, some very VALUABLE SLAVES, if they should be wanted for the farm.

ALSO,

The two lines of STAGES between George Town and Alexandria, with a light HACK & four HORSES.

NOTICE.

All persons having claims against me are requested to bring them forward for settlement; and all persons indebted are desired to make immediate payment, as no longer indulgence can be given, my intended removal rendering it necessary that a full adjustment of all accounts should take place.

The Stages South of Alexandria.

ON the first of October next the Mail Stage will commence running as follows between Alexandria and Petersburg in Virginia:

Will leave Alexandria every day at 6 o'clock in the evening, and arrive at Dumfries by 5 in the morning—Leave Dumfries at 6 and arrive at Fredericksburg by 11 1-2 in the morning—Leave Fredericksburg at 12 (noon) and arrive at Richmond the next morning by 6—Leave Richmond at 6 1-2 and arrive at Petersburg by 11 1-2 in the morning.

Returning, will leave Petersburg every day at 12 1-2 P. M. and arrive at Alexandria in the same time. This stage will carry no more than 2 passengers on any account whatever, and not more than 14 lb. of baggage can be allowed to each passenger.

An Accommodation Stage between Alexandria and Petersburg will also commence running at the same time, every other day throughout the year, without regard to Sundays, and will travel only in the day time.— On this line it is the intention of the owners to study the wishes and the convenience of passengers. Still, however, regard must be had to time—Going south from Alexandria they will breakfast at Occoquan, dine at Stafford Court-House, and lodge at Fredericksburg.—The next day will breakfast at the Bowling Green, dine at the Oaks, and lodge at Richmond. And on the third day will breakfast at the Half-Way house and dine at Petersburg.

Returning, will dine at the Half-Way house and lodge at Richmond. Early in the morning, breakfast at the Oaks, dine at the Bowling Green, and lodge at Fredericksburg. Next morning, will breakfast at Stafford court house, dine at Occoquan, and lodge at Alexandria.

The owners on this line too, have to request that passengers will be as moderate as possible in the quantity of their baggage, as any thing more than a small trunk or parcel which will go within the body of the stage will be an extra charge.

Valuable Property for Sale.

On WEDNESDAY, the 15th day of October next, at eleven o'clock, will be sold, on the premises, and immediate possession given—

A Lot of Ground, on which is erected a good substantial two story frame house, beginning on the north side of Prince-street, 208 feet 1 and 1-4 inches to the westward of Union-street, and fronting on Prince-street 17 feet 2 1-4 inches, and is 88 feet 3 1-2 inches in depth, subject to a ground rent of 18 pounds, Virginia currency, a year.

And immediately afterwards, also on the premises,

A letter dated 23d August, from a gen leman in Havana, to his correspondent in Balt, gives the following information: At a meeting of the junta, governor and council, they deliberated about shutting the port against the American trade, and such a measure was nearly agreed to. It was generally supposed that the ports on the Spanish Main, as well as in the Islands, would ere long be closed against Americans.

The following is copied from the Phila delphia Daily Advertiser of Monday.— Mr. Fatio's commission will bring our ex ecutive to the test, whether they will ac knowledge the established government of Spain, or the attempted usurpation of Bo naparte.
Appointments by the Patriotic Government of Spain.
Marquis de Casso Calvo, captain gen eral of the Interior Provinces of Mexico.
Captain Stephen Folk, aid-de-camp to the captain general.
Philip Fatio, Esq. consul general for South Carolina, North Carolina and Georgia to reside in Charleston.
For the Alexandria Daily Gazette.

EUROPE AND AMERICA.

The times are wild; contention like a horse Full of high feeding, madly hath broke loose,
And bears down all before him.

SHAKESPEARE.

So rapidly do events succeed each other in this age of wonders, that the mind, bewildered and confounded, can scarcely unravel the mazes, and the connexion between them. He who hath lived a year, hath lived ages: For in the compass of one short year, kingdoms are lost and won, dynasties overturned, em pires from their old foundations rent, and the situation of the world thoroughly chang ed, as if centuries had been consumed in the operation. The citizens of America should anxiously watch the progress of these mighty revolutions, lest, before they are aware of their danger, the tempest which has blasted the eastern continent, should extend its ravages to our peaceful shores. Let us view the state of Europe, then, at present—of Europe, torn and convulsed by internal commotions, groan ing under the weight of a military despotism, and almost driven to desperation by multipli ed calamities.

FRANCE.

The immediate author of all the ills which now afflict the human race, after wading thro' oceans of blood, has attained a degree of pow er which is dangerous to the liberty of the world. Her greatness is built upon superior skill, and the reputation of being invincible, acquired by a multitude of victories. Deck ed with the spoils, and bloated with the plun der of Europe, intoxicated with prosperity, and fondly imagining that nothing can with stand her power, she has played such antic tricks before high Heaven, as to astonish the universe. But let her beware: the wrath of the Almighty may not always sleep, and the same Providence which has made her the scourge of the nations, may have already de creed, that her fall shall be more sudden than her exaltation. There is a point of endurance beyond which human nature cannot go. The very worm that crawls in the dust will resist when trampled under foot; surely then man, the noblest work of the creator, when the hard ly earned reward of his toil is snatched from his grasp—when he is torn from the bosom of his family, and compelled to fight in the ranks of a tyrant, against the real friends of his native land—when he is plundered, insulted, oppress ed, derided and trampled on, will turn with fu rious indignation against his proud oppressors, will avenge on their heads his accumulated wrongs, and endued with all the omnipotence of despair, will be finally victorious. The ex ample has been already set.

SPAIN.

Spain awaking from the sleep of centuries, and driven to desperation by the tyrannical conduct of proud, perfidious, France, has drawn the exterminating sword of vengeance, and calling upon heaven and earth to witness the justice of her cause, has nobly commenced the work of liberating the world from Gallic usurpation. May victory crown the efforts of the gallant patriots of Spain! May their arms be nerve with more than mortal energy! May they force the bloodhounds who now lay waste their country, to re-cross the Pyrenees with all their laurels withered.

AUSTRIA.

Has not lost entirely that gallant spirit which has prompted her, more than once, to wage with France an unequal contest. But weaken ed by the disastrous campaign of 1805, in which her territory was covered by an enemy, who, like the all-devouring locust, desolates every region through which he passes, she has scarcely recovered enough to strike a decisive blow, to make a last effort for the salvation of Europe. If assured of the assistance of the other powers, however, she would doubtless, seize upon this opportunity to release herself from the degrading trammels imposed upon her by the treaties of Presburgh and Fontain bleau.

PRUSSIA.

Has suffered shipwreck. Her masts, her rigging and her upper works have been swept away by the tempest: a battered, and leaky hulk, the poor remains of a noble ship, is tossed about, the sport of winds and waves, which threaten soon to destroy it.

RUSSIA.

Governed by a feeble and irresolute mo narch, who forgets the glory of his ancestors, and sacrifices every thing magnanimous and noble to his base and unmanly fears, has de serted the cause which she seemed determin ed to support at the hazard of her very exist ence. She wages a dishonorable warfare with the gallant Swedes, in which, if she be un successful, her military fame will be tarnish ed; if her arms be crowned with victory, dis grace will be her reward. But rumor declares that the Russians, displeased with the conduct of their ignoble sovereign, are determined upon renewing the war with France. The commencement of such a conflict would be the signal for a general insurrection against Gallic tyranny. The nations of Europe have discovered that the ameliorating policy of Bo naparte, is nothing less than the most insur ferable oppression; and with such an ally as Russia to assist them, they would rise at once, and throw off a galling yoke. From Lapland to Portugal, from Holland to Turkey, the va rious tribes who compose the population of Europe, who have all felt the tyranny, or been insulted by the haughtiness of France, with one voice would cry aloud for vengeance.

SWEDEN.

Noble Sweden, has set a fair example to a degenerate world. Though oppressed by mighty odds, she has continued to war against tyrants, and if she must fall, will perish nob ly, lamented by all who are alive to generous sympathy. The two extremities of Europe, like dis severed members, still quiver with a convulsive motion, although the body from which they were separated is a lifeless mass.

BRITAIN.

Styled by the Spaniard, the "Shield of af flicted humanity," presents the most formid able obstacle to the success of French ambition.
Lately, cut off from the commerce of Europe and America, she seemed about to sink under accumulated disasters. But the hand of heaven has interposed to save her. The ports of Spain, Portugal and South America have been opened to her merchants: supported by commerce with these countries, and with her colonies, she will still rear her head against the oppressors of the human race. But what ever be the event of the bloody contest in which she is engaged, she has already earned a bright and unperishable fame: Her magna animy in opposing an undaunted front to a world in arms, will be recorded in the fairest page of history. She has adopted a maxim to which the ancient Romans owed much of their fame in arms—Never to ask peace of a victo rious enemy. And though she has sometimes deviated from the strait line of just and honor able policy, the peculiar difficulty and danger of her situation, should plead in her excuse with every generous mind.

SOUTH AMERICA.

It is probable, will soon occupy an important place in the political chart. Should Spain be conquered, her colonies will assume their pro per rank among the independent nations of the earth. A change so momentous in the condition of so large a part of the human race opens an unbounded field for reflection, to the politician; for exultation to the philanthropist.
But let us not forget our own country, the UNITED STATES OF AMERICA.

Alas! the picture which it presents is a melancholy one. We behold our government involved in disputes with foreign powers, from which it has neither wisdom nor firmness to extricate itself. We see commerce suspend ed; our navy destroyed; our sea coast un fortified; our militia unarmed; our constitu tion grossly violated. Yes, our sacred con stitution, that noblest specimen of American genius, that best expounder of American rights, has been audaciously infringed by the publication and enforcement, of arbitrary, pre sidential mandates. And who are the men that have reduced us to a situation so truly ca lamitous? They are the very men, who, after destroying the federal administration by arts the most vile and detestable, promised so to govern our country that it should be long the greatest, the happiest and most prosperous on earth. By their deeds have we known them.
And now that we do know them, now that we feel the deplorable consequences of their ab surd and destructive policy, we still hesitate to withdraw from them our confidence. Pervio us to every foot is the path of error—diffi cult to be found, by those who have once left it, is the road to truth. But the citizens of the United States, instructed in the school of adversity, will ere long return to the ways of wisdom; they will ere long learn that the pretended friends are often the worst enemies of the people.

DIED, at Sheffield, Mass. JOHN FEL Lows, in the 74th year of his age. Gen.
Fellows was an old revolutionary officer.— He commenced his military career in the French war. In the revolutionary war, he had an early appointment to the command of a regiment, was promoted to the station of a brigadier on the island of New York un der Gen. Washington, and commanded that portion of American militia, stationed on the east side of Hudson's river when Gen.
Burgoyne surrendered at Saratoga. Like most of our old patriots, his politics were of the Washington school—he was an hon est and useful citizen—a real friend to his country—affectionate as a father, and sin cere in his friendship.

Scott's New Improved Patent WINDOW SPRINGS.

THE SUBSCRIBER

HAS constantly on hand for sale, at Mr. JOHN HODGKINS Inn, the New improved Patent Window Springs, Where all persons may be supplied, either by wholesale or retail, at the shortest notice. These Springs are peculiarly useful in fastening the Window Sash when down, or at any height, and in enabling the same to be moved upwards or downwards without friction, and with much greater facility than any Window Springs heretofore invented; and are much less liable to be out of order.

They have met with the fullest approbation of all who have used them. He will attend to orders for setting the Window Springs from such as may favor him with a call. Price 3s. 6d. per set.
